BEIJING INTERNATIONAL REHABILITATION AND PERSONAL HEALTH SHOW

CHINA INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION CENTER (JING'ANZHUANG)

China's rehabilitation industry : A rising star with market value eyeing RMB100 billion by 2022.

With China's economic and social development and the improvement of people's living standards, demands for rehabilitation services from elderly people, people with disabilities, patients with chronic disease and massive citizens are also growing rapidly. Thanks to accelerating replenishment of rehabilitation ward beds, rehabilitation personnel and medical equipment as well as implementation of China's medical insurance policy reform and hierarchical medical system are speeding up, the rehabilitation industry in China is gaining significant momentum with an estimated market value of RMB 100 billion by 2022, representing an annual compound growth rate of over 18%.

About the Exhibition

With a history of 6 years, Beijing International Rehabilitation and Personal Health Show has already been the larger and the most influential one-stop procurement platform for rehabilitation industry in Asia Pacific. It aims to serve trade professionals from medical institutions, rehabilitation hospitals, elderly care institutions, pharmacies, retailers, e-commerce, equipment distributors, dealers as well as 241 million Chinese elderly people and patients with chronic diseases, and 85 million people with disabilities.

The event will showcase global advanced rehabilitation products and technologies and serve as a highly effective platform for buyers and suppliers opportunities. From smart rehabilitation to healthy lifestyle, the event will help China's rehabilitation, homecare and elderly care industries to achieve greater progress.

The Show will be held at China International Exhibition Center (Jing'an Zhuang) during June 28-30. At the same, the event will innovatively integrate medical tourism, maternal & infant health, medical cosmetics and elderly health elements. Welcome overseas trade buyers and industry peers to visit the show.
